

USDA Forest Service Southern Research Station and
Minority Landowner Magazine
Forest and Landowners Workshop

May 3, 2016

9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

(Registration begins at 8:00 AM)

LOCATION

East Mississippi Electric Power Association
(EMEPA) Auditorium
2128 Highway 39 North
Meridian, Mississippi 39302

This workshop is free. Presentation topics include:

Forest economics: Timber tax tips, timber markets and trends, timber prices, timber products, import/export

Forest threats: Wildfire, insects, diseases, environmental, climate change, invasive species

Forest management: Forest Inventory and Analysis, species selection (including hardwood/pine and longleaf/loblolly), site selection, soils, water, timber harvesting, replanting

Wildlife management: Game, recreation, fisheries

Forest ownership: Estate planning, wills, heirs' property

Landowner to Researcher dialogue: Hear directly from forest researchers and give them input on areas of research you need to meet your forest management goals

RSVP by May 2 to

USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service at (601) 483-4100 ext. 3

Presented by USDA Forest Service-Southern Research Station, in partnership with Minority Landowner Magazine, USDA-NRCS Mississippi, and Winston County Self Help Cooperative

USDA is an Equal Opportunity Employer and Provider.